SAFEGUARDING SUNDAY

11th September 2022

Safeguarding Sunday provides us with an opportunity to celebrate the presence of children and young people in our Archdiocese and parishes, as we continue to encourage our community to be a safe environment for all. Children that come to mass on Safeguarding Sunday will be gifted a fridge magnet with an image of a colourful cross containing a message to young people from Pope Francis encouraging them to "make your voices heard!"

To hear the voices of our children and young people in the Church, they will be invited to provide feedback. Children (7 -12 years of age) can complete an activity booklet and young people (13 – 18 years of age) can complete a short online survey accessed via a QR code. Leaders who run activities/groups for children will also be invited to participate in an online survey to provide feedback on how they are encouraging children and young people to have a voice and say in their parishes and communities. Receiving this feedback will assist to inform and implement safeguarding initiatives throughout the Catholic Archdiocese of Adelaide.

Safeguarding Sunday forms part of National Child Protection Week, a national initiative to engage members of the community in supporting families and protecting children. The National Child Protection Week theme for 2022 is;

Every child, in every community, needs a fair go. In particular, shining a light on children growing up safe and supported. Children and young people thrive when they grow up safe, connected and supported in their family, community and culture. They have the right to grow up in environments that support them according to their needs, now and into the future...

This theme is all about the importance of the 'bigger picture' in ensuring all children are kept safe from harm and risk of harm.

EVERY CHILD
NEEDS
A FAIR GO

THE MAYONNAISE JAR AND THE COFFEE

When things in your life seem almost too much to handle, when 24 hours in a day are not enough, remember the Mayonnaise jar... and the coffee.

A professor stood before his Philosophy class and had some items in front of him. When the class began, wordlessly, he picked up a large, empty mayonnaise jar and proceeded to fill it with golf balls.

He then asked the students if the jar was full. They agreed that it was. The professor then poured a box of pebbles into the jar. He shook the jar lightly. The pebbles rolled into the open spaces between the golf balls.

He then asked the students again if the jar was full. They agreed that it was. The professor next picked up a box of sand and poured it into the jar. Of course, the sand filled up everything else. He asked once more if the jar was full. The students responded with a unanimous "Yes".

The professor then produced two cups of coffee from under the table and poured the entire contents into the jar effectively filling the empty space between the sand. The students laughed. "Now" said the professor, as the laughter subsided, "I want you to recognize that this jar represents your life. The golf balls are the important things – God, family, your children, your health, your friends, and your favourite passions – things that if everything else was lost and only they remained, your life would still be full. The pebbles are the other things that matter like your house, your job, and your car. The sand is everything else– the small stuff.

"If you put the sand into the jar first", he continued, "there is no room for the pebbles and golf balls. The same goes for life. If you spend all your time and energy on the small stuff, you never have room for all the things that are important to you. Pay attention to the things that are critical to your happiness. Play with your children, take time for medical check-ups, take your partner out to dinner, play another 18 holes. There will always be time to clean the house and fix the squeaking door. Take care of those golf balls first, the things that matter. Set your priorities. The rest is just sand." One of the students raised her hand and inquired what the coffee represented.

The professor smiled, "I'm glad you asked. It just goes to show you that no matter how full your life may seem, there's always room for a couple of cups of coffee with a friend".

SAFEGUARDING SUNDAY PRAYER

Gracious God, you love and care for all of your children, especially the smallest and most vulnerable. We entrust to you the lives of children and adults at risk who have been sexually abused, and whose trust and innocence have been destroyed.

Help us to hear their cries of pain and to take responsibility for those whose lives have been broken. Help us to recognise the hurt felt by those wounded by abuse, and the failure to be heard.

We pray that with the help of your grace communities and families will find understanding and support, so that now and in the future their wounds may be healed and they may find lasting peace.

Let your grace and love fall gently now upon our children and adults at risk, giving them the inner strength, peace and resilience to seek out assistance when required.

We ask this prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever.

Amen
