

The Parish of St Paul of the Cross - Glen Osmond/Parkside

17th - 18th January, 2026 ♦ 2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year A

We are an inclusive Catholic Community connecting people to God and to one another.

Today's Theme: THE LAMB OF GOD

We celebrate the Servant of God who came to do the Father's will in perfect obedience. Yet he was more than a servant. John the Baptist calls him the Lamb, the chosen one of God.

Entrance Antiphon: May all the earth give you worship and praise, and break into song to your name, O God, Most High.

Response to the Psalm: Here I am, Lord; I come to do your will.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! The Word of God became flesh and dwelt among us. He enabled those who accepted him to become the children of God. Alleluia!

Communion Antiphon: You have prepared a table before me, and how precious is the chalice that quenches my thirst.

THE LAMB OF GOD

Your cousin John looked upon you
With clear eyes that penetrated deeply.
"Behold the Lamb of God," John pronounced
As he singled you out with admiration,
Inviting all to see what his inner eye saw.
When John beheld your boundless compassion
He knew you were able to give your life freely.
For he observed what others had not seen:
A strong, courageous, loving human being
Willings to speak the truth openly to all.

John 1:35-36

We acknowledge the traditional custodians of the land on which our parishes, communities and offices stand and we pay our respects to Elders past, present and emerging.

We commit ourselves to actively work alongside indigenous people for reconciliation and justice.

In this Sunday's Gospel, we come to the end of John the Baptist's mission. He came, called out the injustice and suffering inflicted on the poor. He promised the poor that One would come. When Jesus came, John made him known, "He is here!!" John says, 'This is the one you have been waiting for...He is the answer to all your prayers. Here is the 'Lamb of God', who will carry our burdens bring us peace." It takes courage to witness to the truth. And John paid for it. Less than forty days later, John was arrested and beheaded.

So, John leaves the stage and Jesus enters to continue John's message. He does this by who is and how he lives. He is the message. He too will fearlessly call out what is wrong and encourage what is loving - and never turn anyone away. And he too will pay for standing witness for the Kingdom of God.

However, we find ourselves still longing for peace. We get glimpses of a better world, but it seems to vanish just as quickly as it comes. We've stopped expecting respect for human dignity. We've learned to put up with what's intolerable. There is so much - in our lives, in our world - that we have been powerless to change. Of course, Christian or not, we look to Jesus, to anyone, who can anchor our hope.

Where do we look for who will hold us steady firm to the ground beneath our feet? Easy enough to just give up, or give in. Yet, there are so many whose courage and passion strips away the fake facades, the pretenses used to justify injustice. Many who, by their lives point out that the emperors and potentates have no clothes. And they pay the price of it too. They are the ones who carry our burden, and by their suffering bring us peace. (Isaiah). Think of ...

- A young Chinese student, alone facing tanks in Tiananmen Square.
- A Dominican sister kneeling on a road in Myanmar, begging soldiers to lay down their weapons.
- Ahmed at Bondi, running toward danger when instinct tells us to flee.
- Alexei Navalny poisoned by nerve gas but returning to Russia only to be murdered
- Fanny and Leila Abdullah who forgave the driver who tragically killed their three children and niece
- Rosie Batty would not let domestic violence, the murder of her 11y/o son, destroy her belief
- We older can remember Mahatma Gandhi, Nelson Mandela, Martin Luther King, Oscar Romero, Steve Biko, Patrice Lumumba, Eddie Mabo, Lowitja O' Donoghue, Dietrich Bonhoeffer.

We know their courage, and I am sure their fear was also crippling. But their moral clarity, their searing conscience, the depth of their compassion becomes a revelation and a recognition. A revelation of what must not be, and so of what could be. And a recognition of what we should be and could be.

They give expression to something many of us are carrying - outrage, fear, grief, frustration, longing, anger, hope - giving body to something we have not yet been able to express.

Most of us will never stand before tanks, soldiers or cameras. Our lives are lived in ordinary settings - workplaces, homes, schools, hospital rooms - where decisions feel smaller and consequences less dramatic. But it is precisely there that faith either becomes real or mostly window-dressing.

We may or may not join the "Je suis Charlie", or the "MeToo", or the "i4Give" We may or may not go to protests. But it is in the daily-ness of our lives that we are asked to make a stand. Like Martin Luther nailing his truth to the Castle Church saying: 'Here I stand I can do no other' - and setting of a reformation.

This sort of daily courage, quiet bravery, gentle persistence, isn't reliant just on me. It is asked of us together. This witness isn't the responsibility of one person alone. It rises from a community who together have been preparing the ground - through prayer, reflection, restraint, and compassion - often without knowing it. Call it a parish, a religious order, Salvos, Vinnies, Calvary hospital, Caritas, Smith Family, Refugee Council of Australia, The Brother Michael Hamper Group.

Perhaps this year invites us to live in such a way that when the truth needs to be witnessed, quietly or publicly, it does not have to be invented from nothing. It has already been forming, patiently, within us and among us.

TAA

Once each day, pause briefly and ask yourself, without judgement:

- What unsettled me today - even slightly?
- Where did I notice dignity being honoured, or ignored?
- Was there a moment when faith wanted to move, even in a very small way?

REINTRODUCTION OF THE CHALICE

To be able to reintroduce Communion under both kinds we, firstly, need to have people willing to be Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion (EOMHC). If you have thought about joining this ministry and want a few more details, then please speak to the priest after Mass or contact the Parish Office.

And secondly, have all our EOMHC trained in the reintroduction of the Chalice, have a Working With Children Check (WWCC) and completed Safeguarding Essentials Training (was known as Safe Environments for All/ SEFA training). Once these have been completed all EOMHC will then be mandated with the Adelaide Archdiocese.

More dates for training of EOMHC:

January 20th – Noarlunga 6.30pm – 8.30pm

January 21st – Goolwa 10.30am and afternoon session in Victor Harbor time-to be confirmed.

February 3rd – Salisbury Catholic Parish 6.30pm – 8.30pm

February 5th – Salisbury Parish 10am – 12pm

Adelaide Hills Parish – 6pm – 8pm

HOW TO RECEIVE COMMUNION

Each communicant must be free of mortal sin and refrain from eating or drinking anything (except for water) for one hour prior to receiving Holy Communion. Exceptions are made for those who are sick and for the elderly.

When approaching to receive Holy Communion, whether the Host or the Precious Blood, bow in reverence. The bow should not interrupt the distribution of Communion. In the dioceses of Australia standing is the most common posture for receiving Holy Communion (GIRM, 160). A common posture by all those taking part is a sign of unity of the members gathered for the liturgy. Common posture both expresses and fosters the intentions and spiritual attitude of the participants (GIRM 42).

If people do kneel to receive Communion, then please wait until the end of the procession as to avoid tripping others over when you kneel.

The Host

When the minister says, "The Body of Christ", reply "Amen" to show your agreement and understanding. When receiving in the hand, present your palm facing upwards, fingers together. Step to one side and consume the entire Host immediately. It is not permitted to take the host yourself, nor to hand it to someone else. When receiving on the tongue, communicants should open their mouths sufficiently and position their tongue to facilitate easy reception of the host.

The Precious Blood

When the minister says, "The Blood of Christ", reply "Amen" to show your agreement and understanding. Take the chalice from the minister, drink a little from it, and return the chalice to the minister. It is not permitted to dip the host in the chalice yourself.

WORLDWIDE MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER WEEKENDS 2026

Worldwide Marriage Encounter is a worldwide Synodal Movement dedicated to the renewal of our Catholic Church through empowering couples and priests to live fully intimate and responsible relationships. Our Church today has the belief that Marriage and Holy Orders are Sacraments of relationship and that we are called as couples and priests to be a living sign of God's love to the world, and to love one another as Jesus loves us all. This takes hard work, and a Worldwide Marriage Encounter weekend gives married couples and priests the tools and support they need to live this sign in today's busy life.

Worldwide Marriage Encounter has three weekends planned for 2026 – February 20-22, Lyndoch Motel; July 3-5 Royal Coach Motel; and a live-out weekend at Antonio School, November 7-8. More details are available on the website at <https://www.wmme.org.au/>. Please consider booking into a weekend to nurture and grow your relationship with your spouse.
